TED JORDAN - BIOGRAPHY

Ted Jordan's extensive background in painting and art history as well as commercial art allows him to combine his vast knowledge and experience to the betterment of each class he teaches.

Having earned a B.F.A. from Miami University of Ohio and an M.A. and an M.F.A. from The University of Iowa, he also worked as a painter and performance artist in New York City where he had a loft in the SoHo District.

He went on to teach at a women's college only to land a position at American Greetings Corp. in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1979 "The Very Best" beckoned him to Kansas City where he worked for Hallmark Cards as a Master Stylist, Art Director and a Studio Manager. His most significant contribution to Hallmark was the creation and launching of Mahogany, a very successful card line for the African-American consumer.

In 2002 Ted retired from Hallmark and moved permanently to Hilton Head Island to pursue his love of painting, teaching, and playing his grand piano.

His popular and successful classes at the Art Academy continue to be in demand as well as in Life Long Learning, workshops, and personal mentoring.
