SHERRY KAHLE

Born and raised in Lima, Ohio, Sherry Kahle became a young artist by the age of 5 at home with her artistic mother, Marcia. During her primary years at Lima Bath Elementary School, Kahle was highly influenced by her art teacher, Mrs. Linda Lehman. She developed a love for art and continued working in all mediums throughout her middle and high school career at Lima Bath. Because of her love for art and desire to assist and help others, Kahle decided to pursue a major in Art Therapy. After earning a degree in Art Therapy at Bowling Green State University in Ohio, Kahle decided to make a positive impact on our younger population and become an art teacher. In 2003, she received a Master's Degree in Education and immediately took a position teaching art in Ohio. While living in Ohio, Kahle taught to all levels in three different public schools. Within the last five years living in South Carolina, Kahle has taught to a wide variety of artists, from Pre-K to adult pottery classes.
