OF HILTON HEAD

LYNDA POTTER

Creativity has always been the key ingredient in Lynda Potter's artistic pursuit. Lynda approaches each new painting in a different manner and thought process. For Lynda, the freedom of a blank canvas provides inspiration to let colors flow. The soft lines that form are then blended with one another. Sometimes her subject evolves, sometimes the subject remains more abstract. A professional artist for more than three decades, Lynda loves to relay information gathered from the world around her to those viewing her art.

Lynda teaches workshops in various media and art forms locally at the Academy of the Art League of Hilton Head, SoBA as well as the Cypress and Creation Station. She has also taught at Albright College and Reading Community College (Reading, PA) and Wyomissing Institute of Fine Art (Daufuskie at Haig Point), the Creative Retirement Center (Beaufort), Gertrude Herbert Institute of Art (Augusta, GA) and the Savannah Art Association.

Lynda's work is featured in books including, How to Succeed as an Artist in Your Hometown, A Visitor's Guide to Savannah, Essence of Beaufort County and the Lowcountry, Great Cooks Rise, Remembering the Way it was at Hilton Head Bluffton and Daufuskie, Sheldon and the Sea Islands.

Her work is currently available at Pluff Mudd Gallery in Bluffton as well as Gallery 209 and the Signature Gallery in Savannah.
