

ART LEAGUE

OF HILTON HEAD

g.a. SHELLER

g.a. Sheller is an instructor at the Art League of Hilton Head Academy, and the Studio School of the Memorial Art Gallery/University of Rochester, Rochester, NY. She conducts painting workshops at various locations in the U.S. and overseas. g.a. is a member of Who's Who in American Art, and has been named one of 2000 Outstanding Artists and Designers of the 20th Century by the International Biographical Center, Cambridge, England. To learn more about the artist and to view her award winning paintings visit her website at www.gasheller.com.

About g.a. Sheller

g.a. Sheller is recognized as one of the country's leading artists in the synthesis of watercolor and photography, and is a renowned colorist whose paintings highlight landscapes and plant forms. Her work is featured in the 1997 Winter issue of Watercolor with an article written by M. Stephen Doherty, editor of American Artist Magazine. She is a member of Who's Who in American Art, Strathmore's Who's Who and holds a Bachelor of Fine Art degree from the College of New Rochelle with additional graduate study at Pennsylvania State University and with Robert Reed at Yale University. g.a. is profiled in the Who's Who of the International Biographical Centre, Cambridge, England and has been named to the 2000 Outstanding Artists and Designers of the 20th Century by the I.B.C. g.a. is an associate member of the American Watercolor Society and the National Watercolor Society.

g.a. has completed over 100 commissions and her work is found in corporate and private collections in the U.S. and overseas. She has received numerous awards in national exhibitions and has shown her work throughout the U.S. and England. For over 30 years, g.a. has conducted painting workshops in the U.S., Ireland, Scotland, France, and Greece. g.a. Sheller teaches ongoing painting and drawing classes at the Creative Workshop of the Memorial Art Gallery, University of Rochester (NY), where she has been on the faculty since 1983.